SERIES 2

BEGGAR BOY

978-1-90201-208-7

Tommy and his mum move to a new house and all their neighbours seem to be better off than them. The other kids from the area take great pleasure in picking on Tommy and always remind him how poor he and his mum are. Tommy then gets help from a curious lad he seems to appear when he needs a friend. In fact, with his new friend, he takes revenge on the snobbish kids around him. But where did this mysterious friend come from? And why is he helping Tommy?

BLOOD ON TAP

978-1-90201-209-4

Bill Todd is delighted to have found a new house for his family. It's cheap, in a good neighbourhood and it will provide the much-needed space for his growing family. His wife and his young children - Alex, Beth, Gary and Karen - are not so sure. The house looks sinister and feels even more creepy. They all have a very bad feeling about it, but Mr Todd will not change his mind. Number 13 Blackday Avenue is just what it appears to be, and very soon they encounter something that makes them wish they have never moved!

GHOST WRITER

Charlie is a schoolboy with a talent for writing but even he cannot remember writing all the words that appear in his note book! There seems to be a story being told on the pages of his notebook but who is doing the telling? Charlie's headmaster is showing just a little too much interest in the notebook and does not seem very happy with Charlie. Ever been scared of your headmaster? I mean REALLY scared!

DOCTOR DEATH

978-1-90201-215-5

Have you ever gone to the doctor with a minor illness only to find that you feel even worse? That's what happens to Josh Stevens and his friends. They turn from a bunch of healthy kids into smelly, greasy, pustulent wrecks - and coincidentally they have just paid a visit to the charming and handsome Doctor Blair. Josh's hideous boils are jeopardising a future date with the lovely Karen but there are much more sinister "remedies" lurking in the good doctor's medicine cupboard. But how can Josh and his friends stop Doctor Death carrying out his deadly plan?

MIRROR MIRROR

978-1-90201-210-0

The Johnstone family buy an old mirror. Soon, the children of the household think they can see an image of a girl trapped in side it! She is dressed in strange clothes and seems to be trying to communicate with the children. What is the mysterious story of the girl? And why is she trapped in the mirror?

EDGAR ESCAPES

978-1-90201-214-8

After bringing many other ghostly and despicable tales to your notice I decided that I must tell my own story. I am sure you, my readers and faithful fans, are more than a little interested to know who the man, Edgar J. Hyde was and what he is today. Confronted with this demand for knowledge, I felt it was only correct that I should submit my story to you. Dear reader, I would not be anything without your attention. Dear reader, I will reveal the person behind the stories, where I am from, just how I tell my tales from beyond the grave and the deadly purpose I have. Now, I ask you to read on - if you dare!

THE PIANO

978-1-90201-207-0

The Houston family appear to have found a great bargain when they buy a beautiful piano for a really low price. However, the piano seems to have a mind of its own. In fact, no matter what tune people try to play on it, the piano wants to play its own haunting music. What is the piano trying to tell the world? And have the Houstons got more than they bargained for?

THE GHOSTLY SOLDIER

978-1-90201-217-9

Angus and Isobel love to hear the stories about heroic Scottish warriors. They visit the site where the Battle of Culloden was fought and Angus romanticises the events, wishing that he could have been there to help fight the Redcoats. His opinion changes when an explosion in their garden unleashes the spirits of English and Scottish soldiers who must fight the battle again and again. The children must return the spirits to where they belong, but how?

THE SCARECROW

978-1-90201-209-4

In the countryside, people often become attached to the land that they are born on - but a scarecrow?! Mysterious happenings on the Davies land make young David too curious for his own good. But the more he investigates, the more he wishes that he'd kept his mouth shut. And so does the Scarecrow!!

HAPPY HALLOWEEN

978-1-90201-216-2

Samantha, James and Mandy are brother and sisters. Their parents decide to take a break in a quiet village the weekend that Halloween occurs. The children are rather concerned that staying in a boring village is going to spoil their trick-or-treating. Halloween is certainly going to be very different to usual - but it will be far from boring! Samantha discovers an old spell book and that she alone is capable of harnessing its dangerous powers. She is soon drawn into a sinister and terrifying world of wizards and witches and must escape or lose her life and risk the safety of the normal world.

THE WISHING WELL

978-1-90201-211-7

Tom finds solace from the world when he stumbles across a disused well near his home. In fact, whatever he wishes to come true comes true as long as he wishes for it at the well. In this Wishing Well, there is a spirit granting his wishes but what will this ghost want in return? And what happens when Tom hesitates in helping the spirit of the Wishing Well?

SOUL HARVEST

978-1-90201-213-1

The Grimaldis, a creepy new family who have a bad attitude and who dress entirely in black move into Billy and Alice's neighbourhood. Very soon afterwards their mum and dad and all the other neighbours start to act very strangely - as if they have suddenly become wicked. The children, and their friends Ricky and Alex, are soon the only normal ones left in a neighbourhood of thieves, bullies and thugs. The entire village, headed by the Grimaldis, are soon trying to find the four children and capture their souls to make the imminent "harvest" complete!

PAYBACK TIME

978-1-90201-202-4

A family's life is made a misery by loansharks who then discover that they have bitten off more than they can chew. The family pay back the moneylenders in carefully worked out instalments and with interest! Mysteriously, the family is helped by the sympathetic previous tenant of their home, who was forced out by the same loansharks in the past. This tenant had disappeared under unexplained circumstances and now seems to appear only at the moments of most need.

RAG & BONE MAN

978-1-90201-200-1

In a small village the night after every funeral, an apparition of a Rag and Bone man, with his horse and cart, reputedly makes his way down the high street. The trouble is, the person reporting the sight is normally the next person in a coffin! Thus a conspiracy of silence prevails among the locals and the legend remains unconfirmed - until Bryan, Codie and Dave decide to investigate after the death of an elderly relative.

THE SOLD SOULS

978-1-90201-203-2

A collection of over-ambitious High School children who, through dabbling in the occult, sell their souls to a harmless, minor demon who poses as the Devil! They would do anything for success, not knowing that by selling their soul to an imposter, they have incurred the wrath of the real thing! Now the real Devil gets his own back by posing convincingly as people they know. They are then led, in blissful ignorance to untimely ends. Will any of them survive?

PENS PALS

978-1-90201-201-8

Olivia & Natasha are school chums who sometimes write silly notes to each other, just for fun. These notes are often full of suggestions for pranks of one kind or another! Imagine their surprise when some of these notes start to contain suggestions that are clearly not their own! What concerns these best friends even more is that some of the notes express a deadly message for Olivia - a warning that someone they think of as a friend is NOT to be trusted. But who? Now the race is on to find the answer - but can they find it in time?

NOISY NEIGHBOURS

978-1-90201-204-9

A seemingly puritanically-minded family move in to a run down area in a big city. They refuse to talk to their new neighbours as they regard them as inferior. But something doesn't quite fit with this family. At night all the wild, partying noises come from THEIR house and through the blinds, the neighbours see shadows of what looks like inhuman forms. Killjoys during the day - fun lovers at night, this Jekyll and Hyde type family come under the scrutiny of three teenage would-be ghost busters!

COLD KISSER

978-1-90201-205-6

All the boys at school want to kiss the new girl until one boy does. Word then gets around about her cold kiss which seemed to freeze him in time, like a temporary kiss of death. Another boy, Tommy therefore does all he can to resist kissing the new girl, Sally-Anne. Strangely, he feels as if he's known her before. But when?

THE GRAVEDIGGER

978-1-90201-220-9

When the Price family move to a house in a graveyard do you think that they are scared of ghosts and ghouls and things that go bump in the night? Absolutely not! That's why they moved there! This unique family includes a father who writes horror stories, two children (Jamie and Paula), a vampire with a blood phobia, a vegetarian werewolf, a headless ghost and an Egyptian mummy. Andrew, the horror writer draws his inspiration from his ghostly friends and spooky surroundings. Who do they have to fear, the ghosts in the graveyard? No, the sinister graveyard gardener Ebenezer Krim and the ghost of the old gravedigger who, for some reason, are intent on getting them out of their new house. But the Prices stay put, for now, with terrifying results.

THE ROCKING CHAIR

978-1-90201-221-6

The house across the road from the Tooms family has been empty and derelict for years. It therefore comes as something of a surprise to young Gerry Tooms to see an old man in a rocking chair in the porch of the house. It is even more of a shock to find out that the old man has messages for him in the headlines of his newspaper that predict future events, most of them dangerous and deadly! Who is the old man, why must it be Gerry who saves the town, and how on Earth is he going to do it?

STAGE FRIGHT!

978-1-90201-200-1

Have you ever heard the saying: "Be careful what you wish for - it might come true"? Jo, Melissa and Jenny, the stars of the new school play 'Oh Spirits Obey Us', are about to discover that being granted anything you wish for is not necessarily a good thing! The friends are portraying three witches in the play. The witches of the play are not just fictional characters and soon the girls find themselves face to face with the grotesque women who are intent on spreading their evil around the world. How can the three schoolgirl actresses stop them?

THE ENTERTAINER

978-1-90201-201-8

Commissar Stransky's Circus of Dreams has come to town! But why are the locals so scared? Rumours abound about the freaky animals belonging to the mysterious circus and it's star attraction, The Entertainer. His last performance in the town is said to have terrified the audience and sent some of them running away screaming in terror. Darren Dunn's birthday is coming up soon and his dad wants to give him a special treat. When The Entertainer offers to give a free performance for Darren's birthday party the offer seems to good to turn down, but Mr Dunn should have done so. Before long The Entertainer's ghoulish face appears in the dreams of Darren and his friends, and it seems likely that all at the party are in grave danger.

THE HOODED HANGMAN

978-1-90201-202-5

Neil, his brother and sister, Adam and Samantha are friends with a gypsy boy called Jake. Jake being friendly, invites them to visit the travellers' campsite where they play games with the gypsy children and listen to the spooky stories that Jake can tell so well. One of the stories is of the Hooded Hangman, a man who was forced to execute an innocent gypsy and is now cursed by the gypsies to walk the Earth with the undead. How can he and the Hooded Hangman both escape the curses under which they languish?

GOLDEN GOBLET

978-1-90201-203-5

Shona MacDonnell lives in London and misses her Granny very much, who lives in the Scottish Highlands. To overcome the hundreds of miles between them, Granny MacDonnell has taught Shona the strange talent of Dream Talking. In their Dream Talks, Granny tells Shona about a Golden Goblet which protects their clan from their ancient foes. But now the Golden Goblet is about to fall into the wrong hands! Shona is left with the task of saving the clan from the scariest ghosts you can think of! Thankfully, she receives hidden help - but is it enough!

The Dead Detective

Who is The Dead Detective?

Hank Kane, that's who, an American Private Eye and former police officer. Hank was the best Detective there ever was. He always solved the case – he just got tired proving it! After being killed on a case, he has been sent back to 'life' by the Court Of Ghouls and has to solve new cases honestly – and train a pesky kid into the bargain!

Of course, Hank's body is just a skeleton now, so he has a secret potion to drink each day, to 'flesh him out'.

He must help 12 year-old Charlie Christian solve the cases logically. This means patiently listening to Charlie's silly theories as to who done it and why, and then guiding him to the truth – without cheating. The Court Of Ghouls spies are everywhere, waiting for Hank to give in to his impatience.

Charlie has a kid sister, Annie, who he wishes would keep out the way during cases.

Only one thing would annoy Charlie more than not solving a case – and that's his kid sister solving it for him!!!

So, will Hank cheat? If so will he get caught? Will Charlie ever listen to him? And will Charlie's kid sister ever be taken seriously by either of them? Will Hank ever get into 'Sleuth Heaven', where even the hardest cases are solved easily? Read all six of these exciting and ghostly mysteries to find out!

The Hilarious History Series

For children who like the history of their favourite things!!!

The minimum requirement for enjoying this series is a great sense of humour! These very quirky titles are factually informative and funny. The titles chosen are topics that children have a natural interest in and so encourage them to read about how these favourite things of theirs have come about in the first place.

The Hilarious Histories approach each subject with an unashamedly childish sense of humour. These books are however meticulously researched and written to a high standard. In this way, young readers have fun and information at their fingertips.

BOOKS NOIR

Children's Fiction 2019

For ages 7 – 11

Hi, my name's June McCarthy and I'm 13-years-old.

I know how to play the guitar, write songs and even sing - really well! But my teachers are stupid - they don't think I have the 'necessary qualities'. Just because my hair doesn't shine like in some dumb shampoo advert and my teeth aren't perfectly shiny!

Soo, I'd better make any talents I have too obvious for even them to miss. You know, I'm sooo going to show 'em...

An 11-year-old girl called Sophie Harrison. A monster named Taboo.

Taboo has to help Sophie scare 'The popular girls' - a group at her school who make Sophie's life hell. Sophie, in return, has to help Taboo escape from the world of dreams which monsters control and find safety in the real world.

Taboo becomes her imaginary friend but Taboo thinks Sophie is his imaginary friend... who is imaging who?
